Santa Fe is a city rich in Native American tradition and big-city modernity. Each year, visitors from around the globe flock here to enjoy the city’s many historical and cultural offerings. To ensure you and your guests have an opportunity to enjoy some of Santa Fe’s many attractions, special tours and excursions have been arranged specifically for our group.

Please note the days each of these tours is offered on the Registration Form below

Bandelier National Monument

9:30am-2:30pm

Travel to Bandelier National Monument where you’ll descend into a canyon filled with the ruins of the Anasazi Indians, colloquially "the Ancient Ones." Located on the Pajarito Plateau of the volcanic Jemez Mountains, Bandelier was the home of the Anasazi from the eleventh to fourteenth centuries. Excavated over 90 years ago, these ruins were once home to over 200 people, ancestors of today's Pueblo Indians. Hundreds of petroglyphs carved by the original residents are still visible.

You may walk along easy paths past the remains of ancient Pueblo dwellings to the cliff dwellings where you can climb ladders to peer inside. There will be an option for adventurous people to climb the 150 feet of ladders to visit Alcove House.

COST: $125 per person includes transportation, professional guide, lunch (entrée and non-alcoholic beverages) and entrance fees based on a minimum of 8 people.

Walking Tour of the Historic Santa Fe Plaza

9:15am –11:15am

Walk through more than 400 years of history, art, and culture. Our guide presents an extraordinary introduction to Santa Fe and provides an entertaining, humorous, and accurate portrayal of the "City Different." Visit the historic Plaza and the Palace of the Governors (whose occupants have included government and military leaders from Spain, Mexico, the Confederacy, the U.S. and Indian nations). Learn about St. Francis Cathedral, and explore the Loretto Chapel and its miraculous staircase; the oldest church; and the capitol, and other major Santa Fe historical sites. The tour will finish at the O'Keeffe Museum, where guests can explore on their own.

COST: $35 per person includes guide, O'Keeffe museum pass, gratuities, based on 6.

Chimayo Tour with Lunch and Winetasting

11:00am- 4:00pm

Enjoy a drive through the beautiful sandstone formations into the lush Chimayo Valley. The tour will take us north of Santa Fe along the “High Road”, passing through several small 18th and 19th century Hispanic farming communities before finally arriving at the village of Chimayo, located in a beautiful valley in the foothills of the Sangre de Cristo Mountains. Stops include the charming Santuario de Chimayo, the most important Catholic pilgrimage site in the Southwest, Centinela Weaving, lunch at Rancho de Chimayo and Estrella Vineyards for a Winetasting.

COST: $120 per person includes transportation, professional guide, entrance fees, lunch (entrée, dessert and non-alcoholic beverages), wine tasting, all service, gratuities, based on 8.
Fly-Fishing
Santa Fe is home to some of the best flyfishing in the Southwest. Professional guides assist you with equipment, technique and local secrets. All family members welcome, regardless of experience!
COST: $225 per person includes transportation, river guide, boxed lunch, all necessary fly-fishing gear and equipment, and beverages, minimum of 3.

Tent Rocks
Join us for a beautiful slot canyon hike through the unique geological area known as Kasha-Katuwe Tent Rocks. Tent Rocks is an area that features large, cone-shaped rocks hugging the steep cliffs of Peralta Canyon. These formations were originally created by the powerful dual forces of vulcanism and erosion - which have built up, reshaped and then torn down this landscape over time. While uniform in shape, the tent rock formations vary in height from just a few feet to over 90. Most of the trail is on a gradual sloping incline through a slot canyon that is an invigorating but not strenuous walk. A steep climb to the top of the mesa is available at the end of the trail for those interested in a challenge and a spectacular view.
COST: $95 per person includes transportation, professional guide, entrance fees and gratuities, min of 6.

Southwestern Cooking Classes
Master the flavors of the real Southwest with a cooking class reflecting the unique cultural mix of Santa Fe. Our classes, taught by some of the best chefs in Santa Fe, are not only entertaining and educational, but delicious, too. Today’s menu might include Blue Corn Gnocchi Arrowheads with Guajillo Chile Sauce, Seasonal Greens with Fiery Jalapeno Dressing, Lamb stuffed Rellenos with Tomato Sauce, Sweet Frybread with Seasonal Berries and Prickly Pear Syrup. (Each day’s menu will change.)
COST: $95 per person includes recipes, instruction and lunch, no min.

Chile Amor! Cooking Class
Do you love chile? Are you curious but unfamiliar? Our Chile Amor class will delight those already familiar with New Mexico's official state vegetable and light the fires of passion for those yet uninitiated. Here in the Land of Enchantment, chile is more than an ingredient; it is the embodiment of a diverse and rich cultural heritage and a distinct Southwestern lifestyle. Participants will explore chile's unique culinary and medicinal qualities, learn to identify different varieties, and discover how to handle them safely and efficiently in the kitchen. After the introduction we'll don aprons and prepare red and green chile sauces and homemade tortillas to taste! Limit of 16 people, so register early! THIS IS A HANDS-ON CLASS.
COST: $55 per person includes recipes, instruction, snacks.

Studio and Gallery Tour of Canyon Road
For nearly a century, artists and art lovers have flocked to Canyon Road, Santa Fe’s art gallery district. Santa Fe is an art collectors dream, and nowhere else in town can you find the artistic scope and richness that Canyon Road offers. On Canyon Road you'll find more than 100 art galleries and studios, unique specialty shops, world class restaurants, and the historic adobe architecture that gives Santa Fe its legendary southwestern charm. Join us on a tour of Canyon Road's many attractions and find out why Canyon Road is “The Art and Soul of Santa Fe.”
COST: $65 per person includes transportation, guide, studio visits and gratuities, based on a guaranteed minimum of 8 people.
